in hedordance with section one of act or July 12, 1870.

If a SAULSBURY discussed the financial condition of the country as contristed with its condition previous to the war, and, commonting on the enormous increase of expenditures, argued that they should and must be materially reduced. He was egainst any increase of taxation. Taxation should be reduced; they properly a surface and they are a surface of the currency, and denied that if it was done it would be of the least benefit to the South or the West. The only proper course to pursue was to provide for the sconest possible return to specie payments.

dope it would be of the least benefit to the South or the West. The only proper course to pursue was to provide for the scenest possible return to specie payments.

Mr. SHERMAN urged Sensiors not to complicate the present measure with propesitions for the inflation of the currency. If this was done it would postpone action on the bill for a long time. The Hones would most certainly not vote for any increase of the banking circulation. He pledged himself that it this bill was acted on just as it stood he would, if the Sensie would stand by him, take up the resolution on the finances and keep it before the Sensie until the formal opinion of the body on the subject of the currency was definitely ascertained.

Mr. GORDON expressed the hope that the opportunity would be afforded to the West and the South to obtain the currency they needed without interfering with New England, but otherwise he would be compelled to vote to withdraw a portion to the prediction from New England.

Mr. GAMERON expressed the hope that the national banking system should be divested of its mospoly features, and indicated that he should offer a substitute for the bill.

The CHAIR announced the following appointments, to fill reacheds in the committees: Mr. Possav, on Appropriations, in place of Mr. Amss; Mr. HANVEY, on Mines and Mining, in place of Mr. CROZIER.

The Sensie went into executive session, and then adjourned until Monday.

THE WAR ON LIQUOR-DEALERS IN CINCINNATI, Feb. 13.—At Dayton the ladies are quietly watching for a favorable time to commence operations against the liquor-dealers, and in the meantime are getting ready for work. A division among the people is reported at MeArthur, Vinton county, and one saloon-keeper has engaged music to be played while the ladies are about his place. At Lancaster ladies from Logan are urging on the work. The saloons are all closed, but no pledges given. Work is begun in Canton, South Charleston and Greenville. At West Jefferson in five days two saloons have been closed. At Shelby, Ohio, one hundred ladies were grossly insulted on the street by a saloon-keeper. At New Holland they were assaulted by a saloon-keeper with a poker. He was arrested. NEW YORK Feb. 13.—The liquor agitation is speading to this State. Dispatch of this morning received. Under call of the Interior Department of to-day, sent to your headquarters at Chicago, you will be justified in collecting the most effective force possible, even if you draw cavairy from Fort Riley by rail to Cheyenne, to march to Red Gloud agency, striking every party of Indians that opposeh. Every Indian who has marsuded south of the North Platte should be demanded and held as accomplices in the murder of Lieut, Robinson. Their ponies must be very poor now, and the game must be scarce, so the occasion to give the Sloux a lesson long merchan assess to be favorable. My own opinion is inat the Sloux should rever again have an agency away from the Missouri river.

CRICAGO, ILL., Feb. 12.—Great excitement was created at Quincy, Ill., this morning by the discovery that the First National Bank had been entered and the wault robbed of about $100,000 in currency belonging to the bank, besides a quantity of bonds and valuable papers, and it is said a large amount of special deposits. The bank was entered by entiting through the hall floor of the second story, immediately over the vault. The burglars then made a breach through three feet of masonary. They then cut the rivets of a sheet of boller fron, with which the vault is lined, and then descended into the valit. The safes inside, containing money, bonds and valuable papers, were charged with powder, and, by means of a small rubber tube, a train was carried to the top ofkin safe, when a small pistol was servered to an off ledger and was to arrange! as to set it off. Astring was attached to the pistol and passed out of the scond-story window to the street below. The clock of the bank stopped at 217, at which time it is supposed the burglars fired their train. The door of the safe was wrenched from its hinges. There is no clue to the perpetristors, but one McCloy, recently arrested, connected with the variety show, has been arrested of suspicion.
